FINANCIAL INQUIRY IS SET FOR BAYONNE

Court Answers Taxpayers' Plea to Investigate Commissioners' Acts.

Justice Francis J. Swayze, in the Supreme Court in Jersey City yesterday, appointed Alton R. Allen, retired business man and constable, as Supreme Court Commissioner to investigate the conduct of the municipal government of Bayonne, N. J. Taxpayers had petitioned for an investigation, alleging that the City Commissioners had contracted for material and labor without advertising for bids, that they had exceeded their appropriations, and that they had illegally obtained bids and awarded contracts for public work. One charge is that a member of the commission has financial interest in contracts let by the city.

Counsel for the city received until December 12 to petition for vacation of the order.

Justice Swayze also granted to L. Edward Herrmann and Eugene T. Sharkey, attorneys, a writ of certiorari to review the action of the Bayonne Board of Education in adopting a resolution recently to purchase a school site at Twenty-seventh street and Avenue A. The attorneys allege that Matthew T. Cronin, owner of the site, attended the meeting of the board and influenced its action, threatening to raise the price of the property unless the board purchased it at once for $104,570.

Mr. Cronin sued for $3,000 for time lost from 1917 to 1920 in getting wrong numbers, waiting for central and answering calls not intended for him. There were seven women on the jury which heard the case.

"I don't care a penny about the $1,000, but I regard the verdict as a victory for justice and fair play," said Mr. Cronin. "There is no doubt in my mind that people of Minneapolis lost millions of dollars through inefficient telephone service during the six years from 1916 to 1922, when, as charged by complaint, my loss was the greatest. I am sure that at least 20,000 Minneapolis business men had cases as good as mine against the telephone company."

THREE GET $4,000 EACH IF THEY WED JEWSSES

Louis Mandel Conditions Grandsons' Bequests.

The will of Louis Mandel, who died in his home at Bayside, L. I., October 16, was filed for probate yesterday at Jamaica. The document was dated March 17, 1922, and disposes of an estate of $25,000 in personal property.

Harry Mandel, a son, living at 1168 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, receives $6,000. One provision is for a trust fund of $4,000 each for three grandchildren—Sylvan, Howard and Joseph. The will reads: "Each of my three grandchildren will receive the sum of $4,000, placed in trust for them, when they marry girls of Jewish faith. They are not to marry until they have attained the age of 23 years."

Another son, Edward Mandel of Bayside, L. I., is to receive the income of the trust funds until the grandchildren have reached 18.
